

WE KEEP THE YOUNG LADS UP TO TIME

This store makes a specialty of dressing up the young Chaps who are just graduating out of "Knickerbockers".

There is a style difference between a small man's suit and our Collegian, Jrs. The young man himself generally notices it in the easy comfort he feels and in his natty appearance.

These garments are made to special Models designed only for these lads who are at the growing age.

Price, quality, style and materials are guaranteed by the celebrated Collegian label.

A good line of new Bags. A big line of Caps. Boys' Wash Suits, sizes 4 to 7.

Lowe Brothers

Stop
your Dollars
from rolling away

Now, honest, isn't it true that more farm implements rust and rot out than really wear out? When your roof leaks you mend it and stop the damage. Before the rust starts rolling away the dollars you paid for your implements, why don't you stop it with paint?

Paint costs so little and saves such a lot. Any paint is better than none, but the best for this particular purpose is Lowe Brothers Truck and Tractor Paint. Get a can next time you come to town.

Estate of Alma A. Crowell
STATE OF VERMONT.
District of Lamoille, ss.
The Honorable Probate Court for the District aforesaid:
To the heirs and all persons interested in the Estate of Alma A. Crowell, late of Hyde Park, in said district, deceased:
Greeting:
Whereas, application hath been made to this court in writing, by the Administrator praying for license and authority to sell all of the real estate of said deceased, to wit: Being all and the same land and premises described in a warranty deed from Lyman H. Peck and Cynthia B. Peck to Bert E. Crowell and Dora R. Crowell, dated Oct. 5, 1917.
Representing to said Court that it would be beneficial to the heirs and all persons interested in the estate of said deceased, to sell said real estate and convert the same into money.
And bringing into Court the consent and approbation of all the heirs to said estate realty residing in this State and setting forth the situation of the real estate.
Whereupon, the said Court appointed and assigned the 1st day of July, 1921,
At the Probate Office in Hyde Park, in said District, to hear and decide upon said application and petition, and ordered public notice thereof to be given to all persons interested therein, by publishing said order, together with the time and place of hearing, three weeks successively in the News and Citizen, a newspaper which circulates in the neighborhood of those persons interested in said estate all of which publications shall be previous to the day assigned for hearing.
THEREFORE, you are hereby notified to appear before said Court, at the time and place assigned, then and there in said Court to make your objections to the granting of such license, if you see cause.
Given under my hand at Hyde Park, in said district, this 13th day of June, 1921.
NOYES G. WOOD, Judge.

No lack of excitement Sunday when the mothers of Masters Barnes and Brough missed the young men. Calling did not bring them, so neighbors were called in and after three hours of agony the young men were found playing in the oat bin. I think mothers never knew how dear these chaps were before. All was glad it was no worse.

O'Brien—Ainsworth

The Burlington Free Press of Thursday contains the following item. Congratulations are extended from Morrisville friends.

The marriage of Miss Bessie M. Ainsworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ainsworth of Morrisville, and Timothy P. O'Brien of this city took place Wednesday afternoon at the parsonage of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. The Rev. C. F. Regan performed the ceremony. The bride wore a blue tricotine suit and a hat of the same shade. Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien left on a wedding trip to points in Canada. The bride has been connected with the F. D. Abernethy store for the last six years as buyer in the shirt waist department and was very popular. The groom is well known in hotel circles, having been connected with them for a number of years. At present he is head clerk at the Hotel Van Ness.

Richardson—Wallace

Clark H. Richardson and Edith B. Wallace of this place were united in marriage on June 9th at Hyde Park, the Rev. Mercier of the Congregational church performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Richardson will reside at Morristown Corners, where Mr. Richardson has a farm. Congratulations are extended.

Children's Day

Children's Day exercises were held at the Congregational church, the entire service being given over to the young people. The chancel rail was beautifully decorated with garlands of evergreen and daisies and vases of cut flowers, the decorations being in charge of Miss Oella Thompson. A choir of young ladies took the place of the usual choir, rendering several selections in excellent style, and an unusually good program of songs and recitations was carried out by the primary and lower grade classes. Several infants were presented for baptism. A pleasant feature of the service was the group of children's songs contributed by Mrs. G. M. Powers at the close of the program.

The primary classes were especially well trained, and much credit is due to their teachers, the Misses Hazel Sherman and Freda Noble. The class of girls drilled by Miss Ruth Mudgett also presented a pretty song and rose drill.

N. E. O. P.

The regular meeting of N. E. O. P. will meet next Tuesday evening, June 21st, and members please take notice.

To expect to pay a high price for talc perfumed with an odor that cost thousands of dollars to produce would be natural. But to be able to obtain such a superb perfume at a low price is a delightful surprise. This surprise awaits you in the Talc perfumed with Jonteel—the New Odor of Twenty-six Flowers.

NOTICE!

Richard Mitchell Bero of Bristol was divorced from Jennie Bero Bero, to whom he was married at Hyde Park, Vt., on January 26, 1913. The woman now lives in Bakersfield, Vt. The woman was charged with adultery with Richard Lamonde in Vermont and a record was offered showing that she was subsequently arrested and committed to state prison in Vermont for bigamy because of her marriage to Lamonde. In addition to the divorce the custody of a child born of the marriage was awarded to Bero. The above is from a Connecticut newspaper.
